CROP NEWS ALSO BEARISH TRY TO KILL CONSTABLE

Declines Averaged 1-2 to 1 1-2 Per Italian Rioters Seize One Man and Cent., with St. Paul the Heaviest Loser.

Influences at the local Stock Exchange were decidedly bearish this morning. In the first place prices from the American department in the London market were materially lower, reflecting a rather pessimistic view at that centre of President McKinley's condition.

A more potent factor, however, was the official crop estimate, published this thrinkage in the yield of corn for the morth of August. Furthermore, the reports in circulation yesterday regarding the settlement of the steel strike were unconfirmed. This further augmented the predominating bear senti-

In view of this potent array of bearish affuences, the initial declines were of little import, showing a decline of but 1-2 to 13-4 per cent. The selling, howthe men, knocked down and badly beaten.
